

Workshop Planned for Community Association Leaders

The Delaware Department of Justice's Common Interest Community Ombudsperson and the Community Associations Institutes (CAI), will lead a day-long forum in New Castle County on Saturday designed to assist those who serve in leadership positions in local civic associations.

"Board Leadership Development Workshop" will consist of five modules covering Governing Documents and Roles & Responsibilities, Communications, Meetings and Volunteerism, Fundamentals of Financial Management, Professional Advisors and Service Providers, and Association Rules and Conflict Resolution.

The workshop will be held on November 19, 2016 at the New Castle County Public Safety Building, 3601 N. DuPont Hwy, New Castle, DE, and run from 8:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. The registration fee is $35 per person and is open to the first 50 people who register. The fee includes continental breakfast, lunch, course book, and materials.

Registration is available by email, regular mail or fax to:

Email: INFO@CAI-PADELVAL.ORG

Mail: CAI, 601 S. Henderson Rd., Suite 151, King of Prussia, PA 19406

Fax: (610) 783-1318

The role of the Office of the Ombudsperson for the Common Interest Community in the Department of Justice is to assist members of residential "common interest communities" to understand their rights and responsibilities and where possible, to resolve disputes without use of the judicial system.

Early registration is recommended to reserve your seat. For more information, please call toll-free: (877) 608-9777 or E-Mail to: INFO@CAI-PADELVAL.ORG
